ESCHEW NON SEQUITURIAL BLATHER!!

We're running a wee bit late this week, so we'll eschew the usual non sequitrial blather and get right to it!

We lucked out as the storms that the so-called meteorologists threatened us with all week didn't materialize and we were able to get all of our matches played under what turned out to be a lovely late Spring day at the Soccer Fields at Easton for Match Day Seven on Sunday May 20.

In the First Division, the table is still tighter than a pair of skinny jeans on a not-so-skinny body, with only 4 points separating teams 1 through 9! Hammers A broke to the top with a 5-2 triumph after playing a man down for about ¾ of the game against FC Columbus. Mutiny and Capitals sit even in second place after wins over Columbus City 3-1 and Antrim Ballers 3-2, respectively. United climbed out of the cellar by outlasting OBFC 4-3; while Wolves and Celtic rescheduled to a later date.

In the Second Division, Clintonville remained at the top despite a 0-1 loss to Torres FC which is now second with AuFC, which shared the points with Tango 2-2. Hammers B got their second win in a 4-1 triumph over pointless Ideal; while sixth place H Town was idle.

After the Memorial Day break, we'll get back at it with an updated schedule that includes the reschedules from the first two Match Days which were cancelled, plus some other minor tweaks. Check our website for the fully updated schedule!

Oh, and #SAVETHECREW!!
