DOGS DON'T TALK, SO WHY GIVE THEM PEANUT BUTTER?!

We here at CPL headquarters need to get something off our collective chest that has been bothering us for quite some time! What's the deal with TV commercials using 'talking' dogs? Do they really think that we think dogs can actually talk? They can't, can they? If they could that might be cool. But instead, the ad agency guy stuffs a big spoonful of creamy peanut butter in a poor dog's mouth and then films the pooch trying work it out! It freaks us out. So, c'mon, Madison Avenue, cut it out!! Not only is it creepy, but it's also creepy!! Now what, you might ask, does that have to do with the action in the Columbus Premier League on Match Day Seven, Sunday July 14 at Easton? Um well, nothing, really. Aaanywaaay,

In the First Division, City stayed at the top after dispatching a struggling OBFC 4-1; while Torres kept pace with a 6-0 blanking of an even more struggling Wolves. Capitals is in third by outlasting Antrim in a 6-4 goalfest and United shutout Hammers 5-0; while Celtic held on to top Duke City 3-2.

In the Second Division, Mutiny looks primed to return to the top flight after a solid 4-0 blanking of Clintonville; while Tango jumped into 2nd place after coming back to earn a draw with FC Columbus 3-3. Also H Town tripled up on Hammers B 6-2; while SDC was gifted the full points by Gaucho.

We're rolling along through the heated Summer and the rest of the schedule has been updated to reflect reschedules and cancellations from earlier in the season. And we'll get right back at it for Match Day Eight on Sunday July 21 at the Soccer Fields at Easton. Luckily [hopefully!], this season won't take 9 months to complete!!
