GOT NUFFIN!!

We here at CPL Central know you all wait ever-so patiently every week for our pithy and sometimes biting view of our little world, but honestly, we're too tired to be creative this week. Seriously, we got nuffin. So, in the immortal words of Judge Elihu Smalls:

In the First Division, Columbus City put a little distance between themselves and the rest of the table by holding off its next closest rival Torres 2-1. But they haven't wrapped things up just yet as there are a few more matches left. United moved up to third place although going a man down for the final 25 minutes with a 2-1 win over Antrim Ballers; while Celtic outlasted Capitals 4-3 after also playing short in the second half. Wolves finally found the scoresheet and grabbed its first point with a late goal to draw with Hammers A 1-1; and OBFC and Duke City agreed to play another day.

In the Second Division, the postseason has been set – except for the seeding since the regular season isn't quite finished yet. In the Promotion Group it will be Mutiny, Tango, FC Columbus and Clintonville, after Mutiny drew with H Town 2-2; Tango defeated SDC 6-2; FC Columbus broke open an even match with 8 unanswered second half tallies in a 11-3 win over Hammers B; while Clintonville was gifted the points by Gaucho. So, the Consolation Group will consist of H Town, Hammers B and SDC, which will all start group play with a 1-0 forfeit win courtesy of Gaucho, which has folded for the remainder of the season. Promotion and Consolation Group play is set to start Match Day Ten.

So we're getting closer to decision time and while the various races are shaping up, nothing has been settled yet. That's why we play the matches! Not for nuffin!!
