BANANA PUDDING!!

Who in their right mind doesn't love pudding? C'mon, a nice fluffy cool bowl of pudding can really hit the spot. So what's your favorite pudding flavor? For us here at CPL headquarters, we love us some wafers and you got yourself a treat! We're also partial to we'll be right back – we need to check on something in the banana pudding!! Add some banana slices and/or Nilla chocolate pudding – hey why not put the two together? Um, fridge!! Mmmmm, pudding....

In the First Division, Columbus City took one step closer to season, after dispatching Hammers A 2-0. Torres, which chance is razor thin. Capitals elevated into third place with a 6-1 point total by drawing Antrim 1-1; while United and Celtic agreed being the first champions to plummet into relegation? Stay tuned!

being the first team to go from promoted to champions in a defeated OBFC 8-2, still has a chance to catch City but that throttling of Duke City. Wolves doubled their Spring goal and to reschedule. Can City make history? Will Wolves avoid

In the Second Division, the regular season has ended but the top spots are still up for grabs. Mutiny finished at the top by beating Hammers B 5-2; while FC Columbus continued to score in bunches with a 6-1 win over H Town. Tango was idle after finishing up last week and take the third seed; while Clintonville were gifted the points by forfeited SDC and sits fourth. So, the Promotion Group will be #1 Mutiny, #2 FC Columbus, #3 Tango and #4 Clintonville – and they will play a single round against each other with the top two in total points earning promotion to the First Division for the Fall 2019 season! In the Consolation Group, H Town, Hammers B and SDC will play each other to round out their Spring campaigns.

So as the season nears a close all the races are taking shape but still undecided. This is where the rubber meets the road; time to put up or shut up; time to fish or cut bait; time to put your hair up and square up – well, you get the idea. What we're saying is the proof is in the pudding!!
