COLUMBUS CITY CAPS IMPRESSIVE CUP RUN!! THE CHICKEN TASTES LIKE WOOD!

Have you ever went over a friend's house to eat and the food just ain't no good? I mean the macaroni's soggy, the peas are mashed and the chicken tastes like wood! So you try to play it off like you think you can by saying that you're full and then your friend says, "mama, he's just being polite; he ain't finished, uh-uh, that's bull!!" So your heart starts pumpin' and you think of a lie and you say that you already ate; and your friend says "man, there's plenty of food", so he piles some more on your plate. While the stinky food's steamin', your mind starts to dreamin' of the moment it's time to leave and then you look at your plate and your chicken's slowly rottin' into something that looks like cheese! So you say "that's it, I gotta leave this place; I don't care what these people think. I'm just sittin' here makin' myself nauseous with this ugly food that stinks!" So you bust out the door while it's still closed, still sick from the food you ate and then you run to the store for quick relief from a bottle of Kaopectate! Then you call your friend up two weeks later to see how he has been and he says, "I understand about the food, Baby Bubba, but we're still friends!!"

In the First Division, Columbus City completed a Leister City-esque campaign, by being the first promoted team to win the Ennis Cup as First Division champions after dispatching United 4-1. Congratulations to Columbus City!! Also, Celtic outlasted Antrim Ballers in a 5-3 battle and Hammers A defeated Duke City 5-0; while Wolves jumped above the redline with an identical scoreline of 5-0 over short-handed OBFC and Torres were given the full points by Capitals.

In the Second Division, Mutiny took hold of the top spot with a Promotion Group victory over Tango 7-0; and Clintonville jumped into 2nd place after defeating FC Columbus 4-1; while SDC had the rare full side and was able to grab a 4-3 win over H Town in Consolation Group play.

So as City basks in the glow of its first First Division title the rest of the Columbus Premier League still have matches to play to decide which teams are going down and which will be promoted for the Fall 2019 season (which is slated to start after Labor Day). Until then, watch out for that wood-tasting chicken!
