MUTINY GRABS SECOND DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP!! PROTECT THOSE FAMILY AHUACATLS!!

Hey kids! It's time for yet another edition of "Dr. Mr. Etymology Guy"! And this week's Word of the Day is: Avocado (ah-voh-kah-doh). The avocado is both a tree and a fruit – what?? Well, actually, the tree is called an avocado tree (Persea americana), which is a member of the flowering plant family Lauraceae; and the fruit is also called an avocado or sometimes berry containing a single large seed. Avocados are commercially throughout the world. They have a green-skinned, fleshy body they ripen after harvesting. Avocado trees are partially self-predictable fruit quality and quantity. The word avocado comes Nahuatl word ahuacatl, meaning testicle. Talk about your low-today! Thanks for watching and be sure to tune in again for the an avodaco pear. Weird huh? Botanically, the avocado is a large valuable and are cultivated in tropical and Mediterranean climates that may be pear-shaped, egg-shaped, or spherical. Commercially, pollinating, and are often propagated through grafting to maintain from the Spanish word aguacate, which in turn comes from the hanging fruit - literally!! Well, hopefully you learned something next installment of "Dr. Mr. Etymology Guy"!!

In the First Division, since the title was decided last week, all Wolves are able to mark themselves 'safe' after rallying with four OBFC bought at least one more match day in the First Division by scoring six straight times before Duke City could get on the board in a 6-1 rout that leaves both sides still below the redline. Hammers A finishes the season with the 3 points from forfeited Celtic; while the remaining clubs were idle.

the attention has now focused on the battle to avoid relegation. unanswered goals in the final 20 minutes to defeat United 4-1.

In the Second Division, Mutiny has secured the top spot after doubling-up on Clintonville 4-2 in a very competitive Promotion Group match. Congratulations to Mutiny for winning the Brock Taylor Memorial Cup as Second Division Champions and for earning promotion to the First Division for the upcoming Fall 2019 season!! Tango is now above the promotion line thanks to the 3 gifted points from FC Columbus. Can Tango hold on to that second promotion spot – and if so, do they actually want to go up?? SDC is on a rare winning streak after coming back 3-2 over Hammers B for their second consecutive victory. Can they make it three in a row?? One more Spring Match Day on Sunday August 18 to answer all these questions and more!! Then on to the Fall season, which is set to begin after Labor Day.
