BELYING ITS NAME, HURRICANE HARVEY PACKED A WHALLOP ON TEXAS! COLUMBUS PREMIER LEAGUE MUST AND DOES GO ON!!

This past weekend, Hurricane Harvey came the fourth largest city in the nation, along with multiple feet, yes feet, of rain. Thousands of people will be quite some time before the area returns to you would like to help, there are many ways ashore from the Texas gulf and buried Houston, countless other Southeast Texas communities, in residents were displaced from their homes and it any semblance of normal for those affected. If contained in this Washington Post article.

Meanwhile, seemingly a world away, the wonderful weather for Match Day Two on Sunday First Division, Celtic remained unblemished with blanking of promoted Mutiny. Wolves also kept a Ennis Cup holders Capitals couldn't keep its lead and gave up a very late goal by Taylor Cup holders Clintonville in a 1-1 draw. Also drawing were united and Hammers A 1-1; while Torres were awarded the full points when Antrim Ballers were forced to forfeit for an ineligible player.

Columbus Premier League was blessed with August 27 at the Soccer Fields at Easton. In the its second shutout in as many matches with a 3-0 clean sheet by beating Columbus City 4-0; while

In the Second Division, relegated OBFC doesn't seem very content to stay there after another lopsided win, this time over AuFC 5-1. Tango also scored early and often in dispatching Lancaster City 7-2. Also, Ideal doubled up on Hammers B in a match that was delayed for a few minutes due to some comical efforts to repair one of the goals; while FC Columbus was idle.

First two Match Days in the books -- now we'll take Labor Day weekend off before getting back at it on September 10 for Match Day Three. Hopefully, we don't get 'hurricaned' and we'll be able to finish this Fall campaign early -- if CPL history is any indicator!!
