NEVER FORGET

It was 16 years ago, but for many – like it was just yesterday. So, when we say an admonishment. We will “Never Forget” and frankly, we hope we never do.

So, having said all that, we’ll move on to Premier League action from Match Day Fields at Easton:

In the First Division, Celtic grabbed its dispatching Torres 2-1, and now has a 4 points with Mutiny in a 1-1 draw; and Ennis points in an identical 1-1 tie with Antrim Clintonville 4-2; while City, after going a man down early in the second half, blanked United 3-0.

In the Second Division, Tango scored early and often with an 8-2 drubbing of Ideal; and FC Columbus shutout AuFC 2-0. Lancaster City got their first win of the Fall campaign, 3-2 over Hammers B; while undefeated OBFC was idle.

So, with one-third of the Fall season in the books, we charge on into the meat of the matter – and the middle slate of our Fall fixtures – and look forward to continued top-notch competition. And we’ll say it again, “Always remember, but NEVER FORGET”!!

including us here at CPL Central – it seems “Never Forget”, it’s more an admission than because, quite simply, we cannot forget – more pleasant things – all the Columbus Three on Sunday September 10 at the third win from three matches after point lead over Wolves which shared the Cup holders Capitals which also split the Ballers. Hammers A doubled-up on
