IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL DAY!!

One of our favorite songs of all time here at Premier League Central is U2's "Beautiful Day". It was the center piece of a powerful and goose-bump inducing halftime performance at the Super Bowl XXXVI just a few months after 9/11 – and even to this day it still gives us chills!! To re-live it, click on Bono (if that doesn't work, copy and paste this into your browser's address bar: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZL6sUdma57I>)

In the First Division, Celtic remains at the top after a 2-2 draw with Antrim Ballers. Wolves dismantling of Torres, and now sit in second Capitals 3-0; while United duplicated that score in has hit a resurgence of sorts after a come from

In the Second Division, FC Columbus held shortened match; OBFC also remains AuFC doubled-up on Hammers B 2-1; while teams finishing in 5th-7th place will finish out the matches; while the top 4 clubs will go into the and the top 2 on overall points will earn interesting race to the finish! Stay tuned!!

of the table, despite no longer being un-blemished seems to have found its stride after a 5-1 place. Hammers blanked Ennis Cup holders defeating promoted Mutiny. Columbus City also behind win over Clintonville 4-2.

serve after blanking Ideal 4-0 in an injury unblemished after a 7-2 pasting of Lancaster City. Tango was idle. After the single round robin, season in the Consolation Group for 2 more Promotion Group and will play each other once promotion for next season. Should be an

So, we jump back into it for the final stretch run of this Fall campaign and hopefully we will continue to enjoy the beautiful weather while we enjoy playing the beautiful game!!
