BEAUTIFUL WEATHER FOR OUR BEAUTIFUL GAME!!

Another gorgeous late Summer/early Fall Sunday wafted over the pitches at Easton for Match Day Two for the Premier League. And there were again a couple of intriguing match-ups – a game between the two promoted sides; as well as a battle of Premier League and SOASA representatives from this past Summer’s MW Regional Tournament of Champions in Ft. Wayne. Intriguing indeed!

In the First Division, the battle of the “Promoteds” saw Yoder Cup holders Rowdies get a second half goal to take a 2-1 win over fellow promoted side OBFC. Celtic left it extremely late in a 1-0 triumph over Tango; while in a re-match of the 2015 SOASA Cup final, Capitals scored all its goals in the first half and earned a solid 3-1 victory over Columbus City. Also, Santos took a convincing 4-1 win from a re-building Hammers A squad; and Wolves rallied for a 3-2 triumph over United in an entertaining match.

In the Second Division, newcomer Torres FC earned its second victory of its debut campaign by blanking relegated Carsyn 6-0. Montecristo got its first win after being idle last week, 2-1, over a revamped FC Columbus; and Hammers B broke out for a 6-2 win over relegated Cha Brah in what had been a see-saw battle. Meanwhile, US FC and FC Clintonville rescheduled; while Ideal was idle (that’s kinda fun to say “Ideal/idle!”).

We can only hope the beautiful weather continues to grace us for the foreseeable future – as we continue to enjoy playing the “beautiful game”!!
