SHUTOUTS' THE NAME OF THE GAME!!

Zack Steffen Spotted At CPL!!

On what usually is a goal-fest at the Columbus Premier League, Match Day Three Sunday September 23 was anything but. Of the eight matches played, there were only a total of 21 goals scored, which averages out to 2.625 goals per game; and six of the sixteen teams in action were shutout, including the always rare scoreless draw!

In the First Division, Antrim Ballers earned a shutout win over Mutiny 3-0; and Hammers A likewise blanked Clintonville 1-0. Torres outlasted OBFC 3-2; and Wolves and Celtic battled to that ever-elusive 0-0 draw; while United kept a clean-sheet in a 3-0 triumph over Capitals.

And in the Second Division, FC Columbus blanked the former Ideal side, SDC 3-0; Hammers B defeated Duke City (f/k/a AuFC) 3-1; and City and H Town shared the points in a 1-1 draw; while Lions and Tango were idle.

Now, what, you may ask, does any of that have to do don't know. But there he was sitting on the sideline of match on his phone! You may also say, well, we don't disturb him too much, we don't have a photo of him then instead! He was wearing the same sunglasses though! match – we recall Stern John just as surprisingly showing when there were a flock of shutouts at the Columbus weeks ago was there to witness.

with Zack Steffen, the Crew and USMNT starting keeper? We Field 11 taking in the action, while also watching the Arsenal believe you, show us some proof. Well, since we didn't want to and there, so you'll just have to trust us – and settle for this picture But then again, it's not the first time a Crew player attended a CPL up one day back in 1999. Anyway, it was only fitting that on a day Premier League, the man who shutout Mexico less than two

Oh, and #SAVETHECREW!!
