A BLOB-LIKE AMEBOID??!

No time for pleasantries this week, so let's get right to it!

In the First Division, SOASA Cup winners Capitals remains perfect after defeating a struggling Hammers A 2-0. Santos sits in second place by beating Tango 4-1 in a match marred by three send-offs. Celtic is even with Santos after drawing with United 1-1 in the oldest running rivalry in the Premier League; while promoted Rowdies pulled off what some may call a stunner in a 3-1 victory over Wolves. City and OBFC rescheduled to a later date.

In the Second Division, Torres has looked impressive in its debut campaign so far and handily defeated a re-grouping FC Columbus side 7-1. Montecristo earned a solid 5-1 win over newcomer US FC; and Hammers B got a 2nd half stoppage time goal to equalize 3-3 with Carsyn. Ideal finally got to play and pulled out a 2-2 draw with Clintonville; while Cha Brah was off.

Now we head into the middle part of the season where some of the races will start to take shape. Hopefully, that shape isn't a blob-like ameboid! Until next time – always Premier League!
