MATCH DAY FOUR – SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 30 TWO DAYS OF THOUGHTFUL RUMINATION!

Typically here, we have some pithy comments about a topic or current event and we try to make it interesting and hopefully funny [sometimes]! We could talk about OSU's big come from behind win on Saturday, but the local media has – as always – saturated that topic. Or we could talk about the Supreme Court nomination circus, er, process, but we try to remain non-partisan, as difficult as that is at times. Or we could talk about the early morning twister last week that was literally blocks from the Columbus Premier League's headquarters. No damage there fortunately. Well, it's been two days of thoughtful rumination since Match Day Four of the CPL and, quite frankly, we've got nothing – NOTHING!

In the First Division, no one is unblemished, after Antrim Ballers and Hammers A battled to a 2-2 draw; and Torres and Capitals likewise shared the points in a 3-3 stalemate. Wolves stayed on line, with its third shutout in three tries, defeating Mutiny 1-0. Celtic scored early and often in a 8-0 hammering of OBFC; while United and Clintonville traded goals in a 2-2 split. A mere 4 points now separate 1st-7th place – looks like it could be another down-to-the-wire finish!

In the Second Division, a surprising Hammers B sit atop after a 1-0 blanking of Tango; while City handled SDC 7-2; and Duke City earned a 3-2 win over newcomers Lions; while H Town and FC Columbus were idle.

Hopefully, inspiration will take hold next week and we'll be able to give you something interesting or maybe even mildly amusing to read in this space.

Oh, and #SAVETHECREW!
