FROM BOOBS TO MOUSTACHES

As we put away until next October the pink ball we used as our very tiny effort to help raise awareness of breast cancer, we now look forward to Movember, also known as No Shave November, to raise awareness of all cancer. So, let your hair grow to show your support! Public service announcement over – now on to the games!

In the First Division, Capitals lost their quest for a perfect season, after Wolves came back from 2 goals down in the final 10 minutes to draw 2-2. Celtic was able to close the gap, still with a game in hand, by shutting out City 5-0, which is struggling at the bottom of the table. Rowdies continued their impressive debut campaign in the top division by doubling-up on Santos. Hammers A came back in the second half with a man advantage for a 4-3 victory over Tango; while OBFC got their first points by defeating United 2-1.

In the Second Division, Torres remains undefeated in its first season after beating Clintonville 3-1, which will need some help to get to the top division for next season. Montecristo is keeping pace in second place with a 5-3 win over Cha Brah; while re-building FC Columbus earned its first points by defeating pointless US FC. Ideal unfortunately had to forfeit to Carsyn due to player availability; and Hammers B was idle.

So, the waters have gotten a little bit murkier as the weather turns a little less seasonable. It will be fun to see how all the races shake out, because every one of them is still up in the air! Much like MLS's "Decision Day" (a forced marketing tag if there ever was one!), the Premier League always comes down to the wire! With moustaches or not!!
