KEY AWAY GOAL FOR CREW – PREMIER LEAGUE BARRELS TOWARDS AN EXCITING FINISH!!

We've got plenty of exciting stuff to cover, so we won't spend too much time with other stuff – only noting that although the Crew lost at Montreal last Sunday, it did grab an important away goal, which may be prove to be vital if CCSC can earn a 1-0 win at home this Sunday. A 2-1 scoreline will send it to overtime and possibly PKs; a 2+ goal win and we move on!! Now, on to the real reason you tuned in:

In the First Division, Capitals maintained their lead at the top after handling Tango 6-1. Celtic is 3 points back with a game in hand (although a game in hand does not necessarily equal 3 points in hand!), by defeating Santos 4-2. Rowdies continued their strong campaign with a 2-1 victory over United. Hammers A earned a solid 3-1 win over OBFC to move closer to safety; while Wolves and City battled to a 1-1 draw that leaves City winless and at the bottom, but with a game in hand (see disclaimer above!) over the 2 teams ahead in the relegation battle. So, as we sprint to the finish, Capitals and Celtic meet next to (possibly) decide the championship; while as many as 5 teams look to grab as many of the precious few points remaining in hopes of staving off relegation. WOW!

In the Second Division, things are not as convoluted as the First Division, but still nothing has been decided as far as the champion or promoted teams go. In a match that could have decided the championship, Montecristo got a late goal to break a deadlock for a 4-3 win over Torres, which prevented Torres from taking the title, but both are in good shape to earn promotion. FC Clintonville took advantage of a short-handed Cha Brah to earn a 7-2 win and keep their (slim) promotion hopes alive. Meanwhile, Ideal erased a very early 0-1 deficit on route to an 8-3 triumph over pointless US FC; and FC Columbus blanked Hammers B 7-0; while Carsyn had a bye.

So, there we have it -- all races still up for grabs as we head to the final regularly scheduled Match Day (along with a handful of reschedules to follow) at the Soccer Fields at Easton. Oh, and GO CREW SC!!
