

Only a handful of reschedules were played on Sunday November 15 for Match Day Ten at the Soccer Fields at Easton. In the First Division, Celtic, while playing short-handed, held off Wolves 6-3; and Columbus City secured their stay in the top group, after struggling most of the season, with an 8-0 blanking of OBFC, which will be relegated for the Spring. In the Second Division, FC Columbus toppled Ideal 13-3 in a game in which neither team was at full capacity; while FC Clintonville finished just below the promotion zone after a solid win over pointless US FC 5-2. Just a bit of housekeeping with a few more reschedules for the final Match Day on Sunday November 22 and then we'll hibernate for the Winter with an eye toward a great Spring season starting up again in April.
